Dispute Resolution Section Fall Program
Crisis in the Courts –
ADR as a Solution to Judicial Gridlock

Monday, October 31, 2011

7.0 CLE Credits

Fordham Law School
140 West 62nd Street • New York, NY
518-487-5591

This full-day program will analyze the impact of the current budget crisis on litigants and the use of various alternative dispute resolution processes as possible solutions. Faculty consisting of members of the judiciary, academia, service providers, litigators and neutrals will discuss how each can play a role in combating the gridlock. Topics include customized dispute resolution systems, court-ordered mediation, and judicial involvement in ADR processes. A special session on impasse-breaking techniques in mediation will round out the day.
