

Fordham Law

Intellectual Property Law Institute

Professor Hugh C. Hansen is delighted to announce a lecture by the Intellectual Property Law Institute's Visiting Distinguished Judicial Fellow.

HON. PAUL R. MICHEL

Chief Judge, United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit

INNOVATION
INCENTIVES, COMPETITION, AND PATENT LAW REFORM:

Should Congress Fix the Patent Office and Leave Litigation Management to the Courts?

November 18, 2009 | 6:00 p.m.

Fordham Law School, McNally Amphitheatre

140 West 62nd Street | New York, NY 10023

For further information, please contact Sandra Sherman, ssherman@law.fordham.edu, or visit fordhamipinstitute.com

Sponsored by Cooper & Dunham LLP

Free and open to the public. Reception to follow.