

The Legal Aid Society's 2011 Pro Bono Publico Awards

Presented by The Honorable Jonathan Lippman, Chief Judge of the State of New York, on November 9, 2011, in recognition of the outstanding contributions made by these law firms to the cause of equal access to justice for all New Yorkers.

For more than 135 years, the major New York City law firms have served as partners with The Legal Aid Society in securing the fundamental legal rights of low-income New Yorkers in critical need of counsel but unable to afford it. The Legal Aid Society's 2011 Pro Bono Publico Awards epitomize the enduring strength of this partnership, delivering life-changing legal assistance to our City's most vulnerable residents — for example, survivors of domestic violence, homeless and imminently homeless children and adults, immigrants, senior citizens, unemployed and low-wage workers, children and adults with disabilities and chronically ill children and adults, neglected or abused children, persons living with HIV/AIDS, New Yorkers wrongfully accused of crimes, and inmates in the jails on Rikers Island and prisoners in correctional facilities throughout the State of New York.

PRO BONO PUBLICO AND PUBLIC SERVICE LAW FIRM AWARD

Shearman & Sterling LLP is honored for its exceptional pro bono commitment to The Legal Aid Society and its clients. The firm is an exemplary pro bono partner, serving as co-counsel on a significant lawsuit on behalf of low-income workers, instituting an innovative law firm/corporate pro bono project to address the unmet legal needs of adults and children with disabilities, developing a unique public benefits advocacy program to represent public assistance recipients at Fair Hearings, and providing outstanding appellate counsel for adults accused of criminal conduct. The firm also has handled a variety of civil legal matters and has provided translation support to the Society's three Practices: Civil, Criminal, and Juvenile Rights.
